Companies applying for HVIA Membership during the 2020/2021 Financial Year will have their membership fees calculated on a pro rata basis.

HVIA calculates its membership fees based upon the total number of staff you have employed nationally. This means that all staff employed by the Member company and its wholly owned branches/subsidiaries have full access to the benefits and services that HVIA offer.

* For businesses headquartered outside of Australia or are part of an international group (formally or informally) must use global employee numbers to calculate the membership fee.
